1	In view of the questions & answers posted on your website that the IDC have been made aware that Insurers/Underwriters declined to provide terms due to the lack of a survey report requirements as well as the lack of proposal documentation for the generalist insurance covers i.e. D&O, Broadcast Liability etc. The tender however required for the submission of premiums, and thus we have to ask, will we be allowed to submit a tender in the absence of the pricing/last houses? Premiums can only be obtained at appointment as it is dependant on information that cannot be provided here. Please urgently advise.	Technical	Bidders will be allowed to submit tenders on the basis of non-firm premium fees for purposes of tender evaluation, as the detailed cover requirements will only be shared with the successful bidder due to confidentiality requirements. However, indicative costs on premiums over 500000 non-firm, should be provided with relevant conditions attached therein as part of the tender response.
